ORDER

ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

Pursuant to the telephonic Discovery Conference held before the Court on June 12, 2020, Plaintiffs may mail their notice of pendency to putative class action members directly instead of engaging a third-party notice administrator. In their notice of pendency, Plaintiffs shall provide putative class action members with 90 days to file a consent to joinder form. Sixty (60) days after Plaintiffs have mailed their notice of pendency, Plaintiffs may mail putative class action members a reminder notice. Before any such reminder notice is mailed, Defendants shall have the opportunity to review and comment on the reminder notice, and the parties may bring any disagreements on the reminder notice to the Court's attention.

SO ORDERED.
